U.S. Gave Red China Famed Rocket Expert

'Head Start' Program In Foreign Aid Field?

By BERNIE GOULD
NEW YORK (AP) — Eleven years ago Friday, a 46-year-old Chinese scientist arrived in Peking after 20 years of living and working in the United States, where he gained fame as a rocketry expert.

A week after his arrival, Peking radio announced that Dr. Tsien Hsue-shen had accepted the invitation of the Academy of Sciences of China "to guide its research work in applied mechanics."

In the West, that was translated as meaning work to develop weapons.

The U.S. government expelled Tsien in 1955, charging he was a Communist. His deportation had been held up for five years on grounds that Tsien possessed so much knowledge potentially valuable to an enemy, it would be "inimical to the best interests of the United States" to let him leave.

Two days ago, Red China launched a missile with a nuclear warhead that exploded when it "accurately hit the target," Peking radio announced.

PAPERWORK

Bonfire For 2,000 Years?

WASHINGTON (AP) — A congressional subcommittee says if one government record was burned each second, it would take 2,000 years to destroy them all.

Government paperwork costs $8 billion a year, the House Post Office and Civil Service Subcommittee added in a report this week on its study of the situation.

DR. TSIENT HSUE-SHEN

ent developments except what's published in journals. "We know what he's doing; administering a large laboratory there, ever since he went back."

When the U.S. government first brought its charges, Tsien denied he was a Communist. But in 1958, three years after he returned to China, it was announced he had joined the Communist party.

On Aug. 24, 1959, federal agents in California seized 1,800 pounds of documents on rocketry and space physics that Tsien had consigned for shipment to himself in his native Shanghai. The government charged that the papers contained information valuable to this country, but later admitted they held no secrets.

The following Sept. 6, Tsien was arrested at his home in the Los Angeles suburb of Altadena. He was charged with being in this country illegally because of membership in a group that advocates overthrow of the U.S. government by force.

The government said Tsien (See page 11, Column 8)

FOR SALE

Accessories Like Price Of Milk Cow

EAST LANSING (AP) — The dairy business apparently is borrowing techniques from the auto industry.

A Michigan State University Extension Service dairyman reports seeing this advertisement in the Upper Peninsula: "For sale: one Holstein milk cow, $100. Accessories—a d d e r $75; two-tone color, $50; low split hooves, $10 each; one tail, $5; extra stomach, $35; dual horns optional, $15 each. Total price $335."

Cows have four stomachs.

All Except Michigan, That Is

Daylight (Or Is It Standard?) Time Here Again

NEW YORK (AP) — The daylight-standard time switchovers nags its way into your life again Sunday. If you live in any of 19 states or parts of 17 others, the clock must go back an hour at 2 a.m. Sunday.

This is the last year — in principle, at least — for time-gerrymandering. Under the Uniform Time Act of 1966 that President Johnson signed April 14, all states must go along with fast time next summer unless the state legislature forbids it.

That, anyway, is the principle. But for Michigan and many other states, plenty of problems remain.

As Congressman Edward Hutchinson, R-Pennville, explained when the bill was up for action earlier this year, the Michigan legislature could vote to take the state out of the new Uniform Time system. "But this presumably could result — in summertime at least — in putting the entire Lower Peninsula on eastern time and the Upper Peninsula on central time," Hutchinson said.

He charged the new law will "require Michigan to make one of two choices, and make them statewide. We could either go on daylight saving time, as provided in the bill, or we could revert to the time zones set in 1918, which would put the Lower Peninsula an hour ahead of the Upper Peninsula."

Under a state law enacted in 1931, Michigan now operates on Eastern Standard Time 12 months a year.

Anyway, the main thing for confused Michiganders to remember Sunday is to just leave their clocks alone.

There will be no time change in Michigan. But the neighboring states of Indiana and Illinois will have changes. So television schedules will be changing locally in most instances.

An Associated Press survey shows, however, that the confusion isn't over yet. Most states, including many divided into strange little time fiefs, haven't decided which way they will go next April when clocks get pushed ahead again.

In a state like Indiana, where Indianapolis is on Eastern Standard; the northwest part of the state on Central Standard; Vincennes, Terre Haute and Washington on Central Daylight, legislators haven't made up their minds.

In Kentucky, which also has a series of time splits, they probably won't even get around to talking about the problem in time. The legislature isn't scheduled.

Green U.S. Troops Are Hit Hard

Enemy Launches 'Human Waves'

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — North Vietnamese regulars hurled human wave attacks today against untired troops of the U.S. 4th Division and badly wounded the infantrymen in their first major action.

The heavy fighting flared in jungle and elephant grass country of Viet Nam's central plateau near the Cambodian border.

Three U.S. helicopters were shot down, one of them a big medical evacuation chopper which had just picked up American wounded.

The North Vietnamese launched five attacks against 4th Division units Friday night and today. A U.S. military spokesman officially described American casualties as moderate, a term usually denoting the units were severely mauled.

It was the first major action for units of the 4th (Ivy) Division, which arrived in Viet Nam in August and September and is the newest U.S. division here.

At least three companies—about 600 men—of the 4th were hit in the succession of North Vietnamese attacks 6 to 15 miles west and northwest of the Plei Djereng Special Forces camp and about 250 miles north of Saigon.

The fighting in the central highlands—possibly the start of a new Communist drive—brought the North Vietnamese back into action after a lapse of a few weeks since fighting died down along the demilitarized zone.

"It looks like we're going to have a little contact again," a U.S. military spokesman said.

Falls To Death

STURGIS (AP)—A car struck a ladder resting against a utility pole near a curb Friday, toppling a telephone line worker to his death. Killed was Albert R. Hayes, 44, of Jacksonville, Ill., an employee of a firm hired to perform telephone line work, police said.

YOUTHS PEPPERED Armed Guard At Pumpkin Patch

A Halloween prank had a distinct backfire in Baroda township early today. Three young men were peppered with birdshot by a Baroda township man guarding his son's pumpkins, according to Berrien Sheriff's Deputy William Nitz.

Nitz reported that John R. Songer, Holden road, said he fired a shotgun and then stopped a car carrying alleged pumpkin snatchers.

Treated at St. Joseph Memorial hospital for apparently minor pellet wounds and then hooked at the Berrien county jail on petty larceny charges were Bill Wayne White, Orchard street, Bridgman; Tommy Eugene Brinkley, 18, of 559 Lake street, Bridgman, and Ralph W. Krieger, 20, route 1, Sawyer.

Songer said he began maintaining an armed guard over his pumpkins after hearing a car stop at his home then drive away. A car returned later and Songer fired four times with a 12 gauge shotgun—one as a warning, then three times at intruders, according to Nitz' report. Some pumpkins had been taken earlier from the Songer home.

The pumpkins were guarded because they were grown as money-raising project for Songer's son, Randy, 10.

Expert Says Flock Won't Be Harmed

LANSING (AP) — "Go ahead and enjoy your turkey hunt."

That's the advice of Conservation Director Ralph Macmullen to 400 Michigan residents who won permits to hunt wild turkeys in two west Michigan areas during a special nine-day season beginning next Wednesday.

Macmullen said the Lake County Conservation Club and the Baldwin Area Chamber of Commerce had written all 400 permit holders, asking them not to hunt in the areas.

So Macmullen wrote them a letter of his own saying, "These organizations are no doubt sincere. We are sure, however, that their concern in this case is unjustified. There is no danger that the turkey flock will be harmed by the limited hunting season we have prescribed."

He said last fall, when Michigan's first turkey hunt of the century was held in the Allegan State Game Area, some 80 turkeys were shot out of a total population of around 700.

"This fall there are again about 700 turkeys in Allegan, which means the flock has replaced its losses," Macmullen said.

THURMOND

Can't Stop Him From Running

GREENVILLE, S.C. (AP)—Patrolmen J. A. McCombs and G.M. Melton were making their nightly round about midnight Thursday when they noticed a man jogging along between some buildings.

They got out of their car to check him. The runner shook hands with both without ever breaking stride.

The patrolmen found the man was Sen. Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., getting his daily exercise, this time by running from a Greenville television studio where he had made an appearance, to his hotel, a distance of about two miles. Thurmond is 64.

WHAT A BEWILDERING SITUATION: The changes in time which come up this weekend in many places around the nation can throw anyone into a tizzy. Do you turn 'em back? Do you turn 'em ahead? Do you get more sleep or less? Whichever way you look, it's confusing. And this is how AP Photographer Eddie Adams sums it up with his camera. A double exposure on one piece of film turned the trick. ### Uncle Sam: Fatalist Ever get the idea Uncle Sam is being taken for a patsy by the world? Cuba, the Congo, Viet Nam, the Dominican Republic, Indonesia and — to go back nearly 20 years — China all have a common denominator.

The United States, in each case, either came to the aid of the wrong side or jumped into the midst of a fray it could not win, or did not have the will to carry to a successful conclusion.

Many names could be added to the list, beginning with Cambodia, Egypt and France. The United States has consistently achieved such a dismal record in well-intentioned forays into the arena of world friendship, anyone may legitimately question whether the world either needs or wants U. S. generosity.

Charity frequently is a two-sided sword. While Washington officially professes to think of its aid, both economic and military, in terms of national defense rather than as charity, this image is stretched a bit thin by the fact that more than 100 countries have been recipients of U. S. tax dollars since World War II.

Economic aid has brought the U. S. its share of trouble (such as dictators who accept dollars with one hand while sharpening Uncle Sam in the chops with the other), but international military entanglements are the most dangerous. In addition to Korea, the Congo, Viet Nam and the Dominican Republic, the U. S. has come close to a number of other military actions.

Another may be rapidly shaping up in Rhodesia. The U. S. right now is not many steps away from a conflagration which could sweep all of Africa, and perhaps even Asia, into war. Relatively minor actions, such as the few American advisers in Viet Nam only a few years ago, have a way of escalating rapidly.

That is the point to remember in connection with Rhodesia. Today it is embroiled on oil and other vital commodities the U. S. is resorting to in obedience to Britain's attempt to break Rhodesian independence. What will it be tomorrow?

Popular Resources

Year after year the American people have shown appreciation of their rich natural treasures by visiting national parks and recreation areas in increasing numbers.

The National Park Service expects a record-breaking 120 million guests this year, which would be eight million more than last year and 26 million more than only three years ago. And it expects them with particular, and justifiable, pride because this is its golden anniversary summer.

Actually, the nation's first "public park or pleasuring ground" — Yellowstone — was created in 1872 and there were a dozen national parks by 1916, when Congress formed the park service to operate them and develop more.

Today the agency administers 226 areas of scenic or historical significance and holds 26 million acres of land.

But despite their popularity, many of the most magnificent national parks are denied to city families who cannot afford cross-country jaunts. In its coming years the park service plans greater attention to these families with improved and new parks in or near urban areas.

As the city squeeze tightens, the need grows for advancing the function which Congress assigned the park service half a century ago: To conserve scenery, natural and historic objects, and wildlife — and "to provide for the enjoyment of same."

Unsafe Drivers

While the auto industry admits it has been hard hit by recent attacks against its safety record, the fact remains that many accidents are caused by the human element and no matter how safe cars are, there will continue to be accidents.

The auto industry is doing something constructive about the criticism being hurled at it. But, say its spokesmen, new safety features such as seat belts, shoulder belts, collapsible steering columns, dual brakes and headrests will not do much good unless they are used properly.

How many people who now have seat belts in their cars use them? As a legislator said:

"It's not the nut on the wheel but the one behind it that causes most accidents. Unless we tighten him up, I don't know that we can do very much about the traffic safety situation."

Accident-prone drivers can eventually be weeded out. But some nuts and many other risks will escape the weeding-out process: the law of averages dictates that.

Auto manufacturers' efforts will be at least partially wasted if lawmakers fail to cooperate to the fullest possible extent.

Civil Service Civility

Each year the federal government becomes a bigger employer, and each year the American taxpayer has that much more reason to give thanks for the Civil Service Act which was signed into being 83 years ago.

The law came as a reaction to unbelievable corruption due to political control of government jobs. Raising employment and rewards upon a merit system instead of patronage, the act has made a very civil body of civil servants in the United States, who are capable and who know that their real employer is the taxpayer they serve.

In many countries the reverse happens. The taxpayers are made miserable by bureaucrats. If that were true in the United States, how wretched life could be, for expansion of federal services under the welfare state concept has put an array of men and women on government payrolls, doing everything from making missiles to protecting the health and welfare.

How sweet to a taxpayer's ears are the words of Civil Service Commission Chairman John W. Macy Jr.:

"The first duty of the public service in a democratic government is to be responsive... responsive to the needs of the people, and responsive to the changing role of government."

A Little Longer

A research psychologist at the University of Oregon has discovered that there's nothing much to giving up smoking — if you can hold your breath.

"I'm convinced that it will work for any smoker who gives it a fair trial," says Hayden D. Mees. It's just a simple matter of holding your breath as long as possible whenever you get the urge for a cigarette.

Mr. Mees' theory has interesting possibilities. Come to think of it, if one holds his breath long enough, it ought to be possible to give up just about anything or everything. Not only possible, but probable.

Parental Know-How

Large families usually are pretty well organized. They have to be. It's a matter of survival. The elder help the younger. Everyone is assigned a turn in the kitchen. Clothes are handed down. Mother and dad develop managerial skills they never thought possible.

But problems remain. So in New Jersey, some of the already organized have organized further to exchange experiences, professional counsel, shopping tips, etc. What they haven't already learned, they presumably will learn from one another. Only parents of five or more children are eligible.

The United States will send a military mission to Iraq, it was learned on reliable authority today, to study the feasibility of constructing the unfinished link in the historic Berlin-to-Bagdad railway as a route for war supplies to Russia. The army group will investigate a British proposal for spanning the 100-mile gap in the Iraq railway to link the Persian Gulf with the Turkish rail system which has direct connections with Russian railroads east of the Black sea.

Ironically, completing of this project would put at the service of Germany's enemies, Britain and Russia, a vital part of the Berlin-to-Bagdad railroad which was the unfulfilled dream of Kaiser Wilhelm II.

Letters To The Editor

Editor, Herald-Press:

ABOUT UNICEF

On behalf of UNICEF, and the youngsters who will be ringing your door bells Sunday evening, October 30th, and Wednesday evening Nov. 2nd, it is essential to clarify the following points made by Jeannie Woodson in her letter appearing Friday, October 28th.

1.—Aid by UNICEF is given only to countries that request assistance. To receive such aid a country must comply with strict rules of control and supervision set out in a formal agreement with UNICEF. They must agree at all times to admit UNICEF personnel and to provide access to up-to-date financial accounts. Furthermore, to obtain UNICEF aid for a project benefiting its children, a government must make substantial expenditure (at least half) for locally available supplies, buildings, labor and personnel. In recent years the aided countries have provided over 2½ times as much as they have received!

2.—UNICEF does not have any official language. UNICEF Greeting Cards exchanged during the Christmas season contain the message "Season's Greetings" in the five official languages of the United Nations, English, Russian, French, Spanish and Chinese.

3.—Out of a total of $44.6 million allocated in 1962, less than 1% went to Communist countries—Poland and Yugoslavia, even though 36 countries with communist governments contributed to UNICEF.

4.—UNICEF spends the major portion of the contributions it receives on supplies purchased in the donating countries. Thus, 85% of the U.S. contributions to UNICEF over the past 10 years has been spent right here in the U.S.A. Last year UNICEF purchases of United States goods amounted to $10,000,000!

UNICEF helps governments plan programs of permanent benefit to children, provides supplies and equipment needed from outside the country, and aids schemes for training national staff to plan and operate these programs. The main types of projects aided are, in the fields of nutrition, health, family and child welfare, education and vocational training. Through the Trick or Treat for UNICEF program boys and girls in the U.S.A. express their concern for needy children in other countries through the greatest effort thus far for children to help children. The pennies that they collect on Halloween will save lives. Let's not let down those youngsters who will be ringing your doorbells this week, and let's not let down the hopes and lives of those children awaiting UNICEF aid.

Sincerely,

A very, very nearsighted girl, too vain to wear glasses, finally found a dope who married her, and drove her off for a honeymoon. When she returned home, her mother gave a frantic shriek and rushed off to the girl's oculist. "This is an emergency," she announced. "My daughter's back from her honeymoon, still without glasses, and there's the devil to pay. The fellow she's got with her isn't the one she went on her honeymoon with!"

2. If your recuperating is a bore and you crave some excitement, hang this sign on your door: (The sign, enclosed in the envelope, reads "Ladies' Dressing Room.")

speaking of YOUR HEALTH

By Lester L. Coleman, M. D.

In this the age of medical specialization the general physician, affectionately known as the family G.P., is still the bulwark of strength to the sick. The family doctor remains the most potent force in the total treatment of the emotional and physical problems of his patients.

Dr. Coleman brought the problems of the body and the problems of the mind which can be even more destructive than the diseases his patients have.

Today's physicians are trained to recognize the psychosomatic complaints and treat them with the understanding and sympathy that can be classed as "antibiotics of the mind."

OVERWHELMED BY FEARS

Physicians are noting with great concern the increase in the number of patients who come to their offices overwhelmed by fears of imaginary diseases. Minor symptoms seem to overwhelm patients and produce anxiety completely out of proportion to the severity of their illnesses.

Many people in all walks of life, in all social and financial levels, have their lives dominated by fears of diseases which actually do not exist.

In my own practice I have seen a man of 52, intellectually alert and financially sound, pattern his whole life around the belief that he had heart disease from which he would not recover.

SURE OF AILMENT

It was not until a minor infection brought him to my office that he began to talk out the fears that had been slowly destroying him as a productive human being. So sure was he that the occasional twinge of pain in his left chest meant heart disease that he avoided social responsibilities, business dealings and concentrated only on his "will" and the distribution of his property.

When it was pointed out that his fears were unfounded and that he needed some psychological support for his emotional distress he insisted that "it was too late" and he could not be helped. With gentle persuasion he was induced to see a psychotherapist.

BROKE DOWN RESISTANCE

When his resistance broke down and allowed him to understand some of his basic emotional conflicts he was once again able to take his normal role in his family, social and business life. The senseless fear of nonexistent ailments grew steadily unless they are interrupted by the willingness of people to talk out their problems.

There are no quick solutions to the anxiety that beset people. There are no rigid rules that can make them disappear in a moment. There are, however, ways to reduce the emotional distress caused by the fear of the unknown.

Fear must be faced frankly. When it is examined "in the sunlight" it tends to disappear almost by itself.

POTENT FORCE

The family doctor is the single most potent force in the alleviation of the anxiety that may have been building up for years before they are expressed.

Unfortunately fear thrives on ignorance. Hearsay, false medical facts can destroy the sane balance of emotional stability.

Advice is too often given by those who are least equipped to offer it. There is a special skill and a special art in giving emotional support when the underlying cause is found. Under your family physician's guidance the exact type of psychological direction can be found to open new horizons of personal happiness.

SPEAKING OF YOUR HEALTH — Spare the back, don't lift weights beyond your capacity.

These columns are designed to relieve your fears about health through a better understanding of your mind and body. All the hopeful new advances in medicine reported here are known to doctors everywhere.

Your individual medical problems should be handled by your own doctor. He knows you best.

adverse trumps divided 3-2. Had this turned out to be the case, South would have wound up going down one.

But when West won the trump with the ten and then cashed the A-K, eating up all of declarer's trumps, South was in serious trouble. East discarded three spades as the trumps were being led, and when West then played a diamond, East was able to cash his remaining diamonds.

The outcome was that South lost four trump tricks as well as five diamonds and went down six for a loss of 1,700 points!

South would have done much better if he had avoided the trap so artfully laid by West. He would have gone down two instead of six had he abandoned further trump leads, and would have lost 500 points instead of 1,700.

It is interesting to note that West's play of taking the nine with the queen placed him in a position where he had everything to gain and nothing to lose.

He knew that the play might encourage declarer to look for a 3-2 trump break, and he also knew that his four trump tricks would remain intact even if South adopted a more cautious method of play than leading trumps. West's attempted deception was certainly not profound, but it was sensationally effective.

BORN TODAY

The most famous cartoonist to come out of World War II, Bill Mauldin has become a major cartoon commentator on America's political and social scene.

Born in 1921 in Mountain Park, N.M., Mauldin was a spindly, scrawny child, often confined to bed by rickets. There he daydreamed in pencil, doodling away the hours, drawing himself as a cowboy or other fanciful figures. While in high school he took a correspondence course in cartooning, paying for it doing art work for local industrial, commercial and other clients.

Mauldin got into the Army when the Arizona National Guard, to which he belonged, was federalized in 1940. He went overseas with the 45th Division, joined the Mediterranean edition of Stars and Stripes, and covered the fighting in Italy, France and Germany. His popular, long-suffering, somewhat rebellious cartoon characters, Willie and Joe, became known to the general public in 1945 with the publication of "Up Front."

After the war, Mauldin, Willie and Joe returned to civilian life. Mauldin continued cartooning, wrote "Back Home," did a stint in Hollywood, toured and wrote about Korea, became editorial cartoonist for the St. Louis Post-Dispatch and moved to the Chicago Sun-Times. He has won two Pulitzer Prizes for his cartoons, in 1945 and 1958.

Harvesting Bee Will Aid Widow

Neighbors Help Family Of Man Killed On Farm

BUCHANAN — Many Buchanan area farmers will participate in an old-fashioned harvesting bee on Wednesday and Thursday when they will harvest 375 acres of corn that belonged to the late Don Marsh.

Many farmers have volunteered their services for the two-day period designated as "Don Marsh" days. The use of 25 corn shellers and 41 trucks will be donated to harvest the crop for Marsh's family.

The appeal for volunteers includes women to assist in the preparation of food and serving dinner for the workers.

Donald Marsh, one of the area's most outstanding farmers and, for a number of years, the leading paragon of the Buchanan Co-ops Inc., was killed Oct. 12 in a farm accident when the hydraulic lift on a combine accidentally fell on him.

Marsh is survived by his widow, Mary Ellen; four sons, Dale A., Donald D. and Robert W. of Buchanan and Bruce at home; two daughters, Mrs. Linda L. Westley of Buchanan and Mrs. Brenda Ruth of Galien.

A three-man committee, composed of Robert Cline, Arthur Layher and Dale Mitchell, have been responsible for organizing farmers for the community project.

SMILING TIGERS: Steve Gardner, student government mayor, crowns Sue Swanson as 1966 Benton Harbor high school homecoming queen. It was a successful night on the football field, too, as Tigers celebrated with their first victory of the season by whipping Muskegon Catholic Friday. Muskegon Catholic also got into the act with the "Crusettes," a dancing troupe of girls. (Redman photo)

Buchanan Co-ops has arranged for receiving only corn harvested from the Marsh farms at its elevators during the two days. Four semi-truck drivers have volunteered to give one day of their time and the use of their trucks to haul wet corn to Chicago to alleviate pressure of storage at the Co-ops elevator.

PARTY, PARADE

Eau Claire Halloween Events Set

EAU CLAIRE — Eau Claire volunteer firemen will again sponsor the annual Halloween party for area children Monday night.

A costume parade begins at 7 p.m. Participants will assemble at the Eau Claire fruit exchange and the parade will proceed east to the municipal building on Main street near the Maple street intersection.

Cash prizes will be awarded for the best costumes. Games and refreshments will follow the parade.

The block of Main street between Elm and Maple will be closed to traffic during the festivities.

C. Edward Young and Joe Nichols are parade chairmen with Nelson Layman as chairman of prizes. Louis Waldrop, Jr., Ronald Weber and Frank Weber, Jr., are in charge of food; Harold Bishop is clean-up chairman.

Fair Jury Here Called Impossible

Change Of Venue Could Cause One-Year Delay

By KEITH WOOD
Staff Writer

Motions for change of venue in a jury trial to determine cost to Berrien county for the controversial county hospital annex and to decide the state's interest in the case were taken under advisement Friday by Kalamazoo Judge Lucien Sweet, chancellor in the litigation.

Judge Sweet listened to arguments most of the morning before telling attorneys for Doyle & Associates (hospital annex builder), the county, and the state attorney general's office they wouldn't get an immediate ruling on their motions.

The change of venue motion by Doyle charged local news media with making the annex controversy a "political whipping boy," and making it impossible to obtain an impartial jury to hear the case in Berrien county.

Although Judge Sweet chided Doyle's attorney, Lee Boothby of Niles, for hinting that local news reports were not completely accurate and then using news media figures to support his case, he conceded at one point that it appeared a change of venue might be in order.

However, he also warned that a change of venue to Kalamazoo county would mean more than a year's delay in the case. The Kalamazoo court docket is filled through 1967, he said. The trial is on the Berrien circuit court docket for January, 1967.

Paul Taglia, one of three attorneys representing the county, argued that moving the case to Kalamazoo would mean added expense to the county and inconvenience to both witnesses and the general public, which he indicated is vitally interested in the case and should have the right to sit in on the trial.

The move for a change, he added, is premature. It should first be proven that a fair trial would be impossible in Berrien county, and this has not been done.

Regarding participation by the attorney general's office, a motion had been filed by the state to allow its attorneys to take part in the trial, and a counter motion was filed by Doyle to prevent it.

Milton I. Firestone, assistant attorney general, said the state wished to present its own appraisals of the property's value and be given a chance to cross examine witnesses for Doyle.

Boothby objected on grounds that state intervention would present a three-pronged attack on the problem and further complicate the situation. Boothby said he had no objection to having state attorneys sit in on proceedings, but felt they should not be full partners in the trial itself.

Judge Sweet said he felt the controversy was now between only Doyle and the county. Having a third party involved — presenting witnesses and cross examining — just wouldn't be fair, he said. The county, he indicated, is adequately represented in the case and in all fairness does not need assistance from the attorney general's office.

However he did not make a final ruling on whether or not the state would be allowed to take part in the trial.

'SLANTED'

In arguments on the change of venue motion, Boothby presented copies of newspaper articles which he contended were slanted to portray his client in an unfavorable light. He added that potential Berrien county jurors have already been informed regarding negotiations and appraisals, but these aspects have not been presented in an impartial court of law.

Boothby also reiterated the contention contained in his motion that a new judge could not become adequately familiar with the case to hear the trial.

Jurors will be asked only to determine the fair market value of the annex and a fair rental price for the time it has been occupied by the county.

The trial has been assigned to Berrien Circuit Judge Karl F. Zick on request of Judge Sweet. Judge Zick had disqualified himself early in the litigation on grounds that there was possible conflict of interest for local judges.

On asking that the trial be reassigned to Judge Zick, the chancellor indicated he felt two questions were to be decided by jurors and there was no conflict for local judges. Judge Sweet emphasized Friday that he

Materials Firm In Niles Closes

Walkden Cited In Tax Liens

Walkden Supply, Inc., a cement and building material firm with headquarters in Niles, has been closed.

Records at the Berrien county courthouse allege the firm is behind in its financial obligations to the federal tax collectors, the Michigan tax collectors, a legal firm and to a company that financed the purchase of two trucks.

The firm's president, Jack Dean of Berrien Springs, is reported in Arizona and was unavailable for comment today. Dean is well-known in Berrien county as head of Dean's Dairy at Berrien Springs and as a Boy Scout leader. He has also headed the Chamber of Commerce at Berrien Springs and has worked with other community organizations.

NO COMMENT

Walkden's attorney, Julian Hughes of St. Joseph, would not comment on the reason the Niles firm was closed this week.

The federal government has filed a tax lien in the Berrien register of deeds office against the Walkden firm, claiming that as of Oct. 18 the firm was $12,716 behind in its withholding tax payments.

The Michigan Employment Security commission has also filed a tax lien in the deeds office, indicating Walkden was $4,914 behind in its withholding payments as of Oct. 18.

SUIT FILED

A Chicago law firm has filed a suit in the county clerk's office against the Walkden firm, claiming the Niles company owes it $20,300 for legal work performed in 1962 through 1964.

The suit filed by Sidney M. Gunther and Allen D. Choka of the firm of Gunther and Choka, asks damages of $25,000.

In another suit, the International Harvester Credit Corp. asks the court to award it $5,673 which it claims Walkden still owes on the purchase of two trucks.

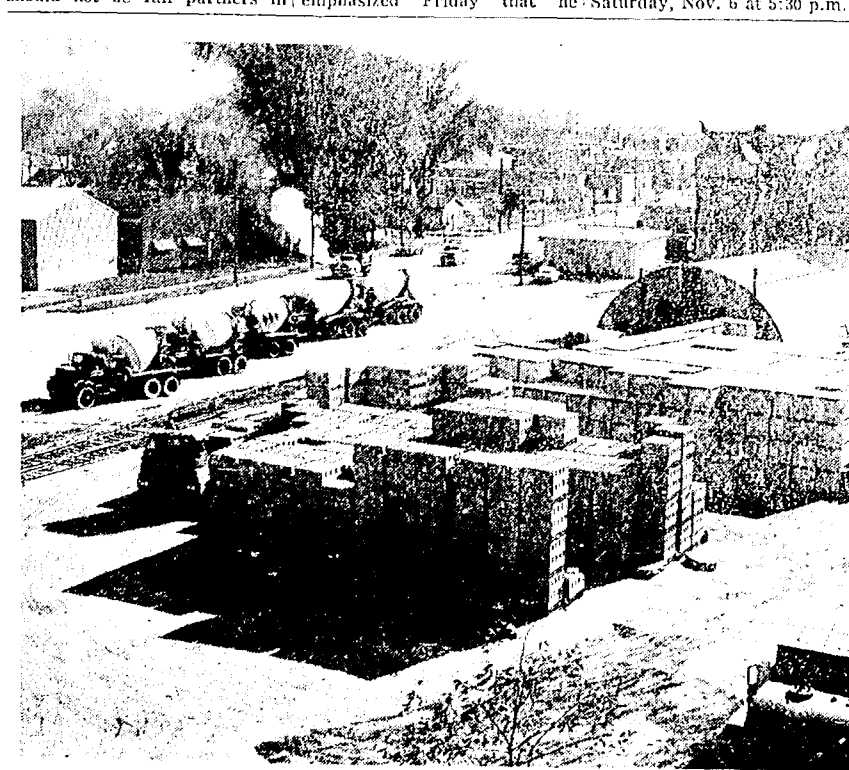

Walkden Supply was started in 1949 by Richard Walkden of Buchanan. He sold the firm four years ago to Frederic White of Kalamazoo who sold the company to Dean about a year ago.

Fight Not In Pizza Pit

Herb Hess, manager of Pasquale's Pizza Pit, Empire and Colfax avenues, Benton Harbor, reports that a fight between two girls, reported in this paper yesterday, was outside the Pizza Pit, not inside as was implied. Hess said the combatants had not been in the Pizza Pit but apparently were just passing by on the sidewalk.

Fined For Slapping Negro Girl

White Youth Says She Threw Brick

James P. Sears, Jr., 16, of 981 McAllister avenue, Benton Harbor, was ordered to pay fines and costs totaling $32.90 after pleading guilty to assault and battery yesterday before Benton Harbor Municipal Judge Elizabeth Forhan.

Sears was arrested by Benton Harbor Police Patrolman Herman Pollard who reported he witnessed Sears slap a 16-year-old Negro girl in the 300 block of Pavone street. Sears is white.

Sears told police he was taking his girlfriend, Connie Sue Reeves, 18, 397 Pavone street, home after school when he saw a group of Negro youngsters fighting with white youngsters. He and his girlfriend intervened. Sears said, but the girlfriend was hit by a brick thrown by a Negro girl, identified as Sherrill Ellison, 464 Vineyard, he told officers.

Miss Reeves sustained a cut near one of her eyes that required two stitches to close. She was treated at Mercy hospital and then in a local doctor's office.

Sears said he slapped Sherrill after she threw the brick. Sherrill denied she threw the brick and said Sears' attack was unprovoked, according to the police report.

AROUND OUR TOWNS

An Old Swing Disappears

THIEVES STOLE an old family swing one night this week, and an unmeasurable amount of family happiness went with it.

For nearly 45 years, the two-seater swing had provided countless hours of pleasure for Mr. and Mrs. John Ackerman of 1292 Bishop avenue, Benton Harbor, their children and grandchildren as shown in the photo.

It was gone Wednesday morning, ironically the day after Mr. and Mrs. Ackerman's 61st wedding anniversary. They had owned the swing since 1922.

Why it was stolen is an unanswerable question. Something like an old wood swing can't be appraised to the dollar. The real value rests only with the owners. Patrolman Kenneth Welsher said thieves must have used a truck to remove it. He was told it stands six feet high and is eight feet long and six feet wide.

The Ackerman family probably won't forget those pleasurable moments. Neither will they forget one question: why?

SEVERAL GENERATIONS ENJOYED IT.

HERBERT P. JENSEN

THE FIRST PLACE float at the University of Michigan's homecoming Friday and Saturday, Oct. 21 and 22, was designed by a St. Joseph man, Herbert P. Jensen.

His fraternity, Kappa Sigma, has won this honor for two years, with both floats designed by Jensen. The float this year was built by the fraternity brothers with assistance from the Alpha Xi Delta girls.

Jensen, a 1962 St. Joseph high school graduate, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert V. Jensen, 851 Mohawk lane. In 1963 he was presented the annual educational award from Indiana & Michigan Electric company with the cooperation of the American Electric Power company systems. He was the only award winner in Michigan that year and one of three of the 2,200 sons and daughters of I & M employees. In high school he was treasurer of the Ii-Y club, member of the Varsity and math clubs, class executive board, and tennis and football teams.

He is currently a senior at U of M's architecture and design school.

THOMAS E. ALBRIGHT, son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Albright, 110 East Delaware street, Fairplain, has been elected business manager of his fraternity, Sigma Phi Delta, at Tri-State College, Angola, Ind., the college has announced.

Initiated as a new member of the same fraternity was Clifford L. DeSchaaf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto DeSchaaf, of route 1, Benton Harbor, according to the announcement.

Both students are in the college's electrical engineering department and both are 1963 graduates of Benton Harbor high school.

MRS. HETTIE PHILLIPS, who makes her home with a stepson, Arthur W. Phillips, route 1, Eau Claire, has requested the assistance of this newspaper in thanking her family and friends "who so lovingly entertained for me" on the occasion of her 88th birthday on Oct. 22.

"May God bless them all," Mrs. Phillips writes. "The best in life is our friends."

She expressed gratitude to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chandonia, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Urick, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Collins, of Sodus, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Miller, of Pearl Grange, and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Griffin and daughter Jen-

BUCKS WINNINGEST TEAM IN AREA'S HISTORY

BUCHANAN —The Buchanan Bucks became the winningest team in modern Southwestern Michigan football history here Friday night when coach Doug Borgert's club beat Lakeshore, 47-0.

It was the 32nd straight win for the Bucks, who haven't lost a game since South Bend Clay downed them 3-0 in the season opener in 1961.

Up until last night, the St. Joseph Ponies, with 31 straight victories, held the area win streak record.

The Bucks added to three other records, too. They have now won 26 straight league games, wrapped up their fifth straight league championship and haven't lost to a Michigan team in 45 games, although three ended in ties.

Lakeshore, well aware of Buchanan's defensive record, decided to try the aerial route. It worked, to some degree, as 18 of 41 passes were completed for a total of 201 yards.

The deluge of passes, 40 of which were thrown by quarterback Steve Stockman, didn't get the Lancers on the board but it did help them to out-first down the Bucks, 17-13.

Pass interceptions, fumbles and a blocked punt stopped several Lakeshore threats including one in the third quarter that found the Lancers on the Buchanan one-inch line with a fourth down. Stockman went back to pass but was hit by the right side of the Buchanan line, which includes defensive middle guard Jerry Hubbard. Hubbard stole the ball from Stockman and raced 35 yards for a touchdown. Hubbard also scored a touchdown in the second quarter when he picked up a blocked punt and ran it 55 yards for Buchanan's second score of the night.

Pass interceptions brought about three other Buchanan touchdowns. David Stelter, a defensive end, scored in the second period on a 25-yard return of a Lakeshore loss.

In the fourth period, when Buchanan scored three times, safety Pat Sexton returned a Lander pass 32 yards for a score. Buchanan's first touchdown of the fourth period was set up when Hubbard intercepted on his own 30 and ran it back to the Lakeshore 24. Halfback Art McKinney went over from the two.

The Bucks, who threw 15 passes and completed five, used this route to score their first touchdown. It was a 48-yard play from quarterback Chet Hankerson to end Bill Babbs who caught the ball at the 19, shook off two tacklers, and scored into the end zone. Buchanan's seventh and final score also came on a pass, this time from Sexton to end Lynn Davidson that covered 24 yards and ended a 77-yard drive.

The Bucks almost added an eighth touchdown. With 12 seconds left in the game, Babbs intercepted a pass on his own four and ran 79 yards to the Lakeshore 17 when he ran out of blockers and was pulled down from behind.

Tigers, Bears End Loss Streaks...And How!

Hull, Hynd Spark 1st Win, 33-6

By JIM DELAND
Sports Editor

Fireworks at Filstrup Field are traditional on the Fourth of July, but Benton Harbor's Tigers exploded a few for Homecoming Friday night.

Sparked by the dazzling running of senior fullback Leroy (The Horse) Hull and sophomore halfback Butch Hynd, the Tigers lit up the scoreboard with a 33-6 victory over Muskegon Catholic Central to turn the Homecoming affair into a real celebration.

It was the first victory of the season for coach Al Ratcliff's Tigers and they did it up in style, with Hull scoring on runs of 83 and 32 yards and Hynd hitting paydirt on a brilliant 63-yard punt return to highlight the successful conquest of the invading Crusaders.

"This was the hardest we've hit since last year's Homecoming game with Muskegon," said Ratcliff, who was hoisted to his players' shoulders when the final horn sounded. "It was a long time coming, but it was a good one."

Especially pleasing to the Tiger coach was the manner in which the victory was accomplished, as Benton Harbor spotted the Crusaders a 6-0 lead but bounced back to win it with an overwhelming running attack.

By the time the evening was over, the Tigers had rolled up 336 yards on the ground and Hull accounted for more than half of the total, picking up 187 yards in 15 carries for a flashy 12.4 average.

Both of Hull's touchdown runs came on the same play—an off-tackle play toward the Tiger's split end. On one he cut outside a block by Dave Page while on the other he went between guard and tackle, but the result was the same both times.

The Tigers were behind 6-0 before they touched the ball as coach Ed Farhat's Crusaders took the opening kickoff and drove 68 yards in four plays, with Tom Bourdon plunging the final yard to score.

Southpaw quarterback Bob Pyka caught the Tigers by surprise with a 32-yard pass to Wally Drabowski on the first play of the game and hit him again for six yards on fourth down to keep the drive going.

The Tigers also tried the bomb on their first play from scrimmage but Bob Van Antwerp's toss fell short after Rich Visintainer had beaten the Muskegon defenders. Another pass two plays later was intercepted by Jack Brown at the MCC nine-yard line, but the Crusaders never got out of the hole.

A short punt gave the ball to the Tigers at the Catholic 25, but they were pushed back to the 32 by a holding penalty. On the next play Hull zoomed off tackle and went into the end zone untouched to tie the score at 6-6.

Cecil Young's kick was short and wide, but it turned out to be of little significance as the Tigers scored 20 points in less than five minutes during the second quarter to put the game out of reach.

The first TD came on a 57-yard surge that started with a 17-yard run by Hull and ended with a one-yard quarterback sneak by Van Antwerp and a

Watervliet Air Attack Sinks Bridgman, 27-0

WATERVLIE — The Watervliet Panthers unleashed a surprise air attack here Friday night to bomb Bridgman 27-0 in a Red Arrow conference game.

The Panthers, who had attempted less than six passes a game in their first six outings this season, took to the air 21 times last night and completed 12 for 195 yards and two touchdowns before an overjoyed Homecoming crowd.

It was the fifth victory of the season for coach Jerry Barchett's Panthers, who haven't lost since their opening game, and keeps them in the thick of the Red Arrow race with a 5-1 record, only half a step behind co-leaders St. John's and Decatur who are 4-0-2 in league play.

"They stacked up on us in the line, so we went to the air a little more," Barchett explained of the aerial barrage. "I think hitting the first pass for a touchdown was instrumental in keeping us in the air."

successful PAT run by Larry Allen.

Hull left the field limping after the 17-yarder, but he quickly demonstrated it was only a temporary situation the next time he carried the ball. A 42-yard punt by Catholic's Joe Connell put the Tigers on their own 17, but Hull dashed through a big hole off tackle on the first play and raced the rest of the way untouched with the help of a perfect downfield block by tight end Mickey McKenzie.

The Tigers' next touchdown was even more stunning, as Hynd fielded a punt by Connell at the Harbor 37, bounced off three tacklers near mid-field and scampered all the way down the right sideline with a key block by Gary Hardke. Hynd also ran for the extra point to make it 26-6 at intermission.

Benton Harbor's defense suffered a lull early in the third quarter, but the Tigers were baited out by a holding penalty that nullified a six-yard touchdown run by Muskegon Catholic's Steve Toper.

Two penalties stalled the Tigers' next drive, but they got the ball back quickly as Allen

The big bomb came on the fifth play of the game, with quarterback Julian Fotre lofting a 47-yard pass to slot back Dennis Camp to give the Panthers an instant 6-0 lead.

Watervliet's attempted conversion kick was no good, but Fotre struck again on the first play of the second quarter.

Faced with fourth down and eight yards to go at the Bridgman 25, Fotre fired a strike to halfback Bob Koshar for the touchdown. Fascinated by the passing success, the Panthers pulled some razzle-dazzle on the conversion attempt, with Camp throwing a halfback pass to fullback Ralph Yarborough.

Yarborough got the Panthers' final two touchdowns with Swedish exchange student Clas Lindroth kicking the extra point each time.

Both touchdowns came on extended drives, with Yarborough crashing over from six yards out in the second quarter and plunging two yards for the final TD in the fourth period.

Three players took part in the aerial circus, as Fotre completed 8 of 11, sophomore quarterback Dave Johnson 4 of 9 while Koshar missed on his only attempt. The only interception was made by Ralph Schmaltz, one of Johnson's attempts.

Koshar was equally adept at catching the ball when it was thrown by Bridgman, intercepting three passes to help the Panthers preserve their fourth shutout of the season.

Other defensive standouts for Watervliet were Homecoming King Bill Cartwright and Joe Okay, who led the Panthers in tackles from their linebacking positions.

The Bees picked up a major share of their yardage on their opening drive, as they marched 50 yards to the Watervliet 30 before finally giving the ball up on downs.

The defeat drops Bridgman into a tie with Galien for seventh place in the Red Arrow standings with a 1-4-1 record.

Score by quarters:

YOU CAN'T WIN 'EM ALL: Referee orders disgusted St. John's coach Dave Zegunis off field after he rushed on to question call on penalty which nullified a 43-yard touchdown pass play in fourth quarter of Friday's game at Decatur. ## St. Joseph Wins 23-3 At Portage

By JAKE SHUBINSKI
Staff Sports Writer

PORTAGE — Losing streaks, like winning streaks, must come to an end sooner or later.

So it was here Friday night with the St. Joseph Bears as coach Willis Koonitz' lads snapped a four-game losing streak and a three-game scoreless string with a 23-3 Big Six victory over Portage Central.

The Bears, in taking their first conference win in four starts, extended Central's losing string to five and pushed the Mustangs into the conference cellar, a position the Bears escaped themselves by coming up with one of their top offensive and defensive efforts of the season.

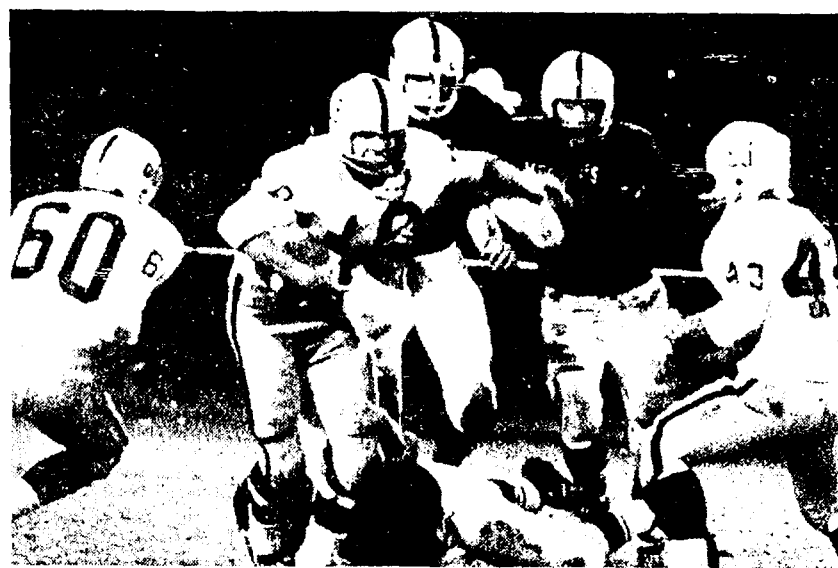

"Our defensive unit sparkled," said the St. Joseph coach, "and our offensive line made it easy for our backs to gain yardage."

Koonitz praised the work of linebacker Dick Cox and defensive right half Karl Milnikel. Cox was in on 50 per cent of the tackles and Milnikel, playing his first game, was a standout subbing on defense for Dick Lindenfeld who got his first assignment as starting quarterback.

The Bears rushed for 214 yards against Central's 4-4 defense that allowed large chunks of yardage to be gained up the middle while the Bears were outside the 30s. It tightened up somewhat when the Bears got near the goal lines but the linemen kept opening holes for St. Joseph runners.

The defense held Central to 94 yards on the ground and threw Portage runners for losses eight different times.

It took the Bears just four minutes and 15 seconds to end their string of scoreless games but a Portage goal line stand almost prolonged it.

After Greg Forbes returned the opening kickoff from his own 22 to the 46, the Bears took just 10 plays to score their first touchdown since the Dowagiac game.

Forbes, gaining good yardage up the middle, carried four times during the drive for 26 yards and missed scoring the touchdown by a foot on third down. On the next play, Jim Hays went over for the TD then added the extra point on a run after Dave Knuth's conversion placement was wide. The Bears got their second chance thanks to an offside penalty.

The next two times St. Joseph had the ball the Bears threatened but ran out of downs. The first time they moved to the Portage 27 then drove from their own 27 to the Portage 16 but lost possession

The next play lost seven back to the 13 then Larry Woodhams gained one to the 12 but was stopped for no gain on his next try.

Terry Buder, a guard, then kicked a field goal that traveled a total of 27 yards and split the uprights about five feet above the crossbar.

There was some question as to whether the next kickoff was an on-side attempt or just a bad kick. Whatever it was, the Bears took over at their own 41 and moved in for a 14-3 lead in 12 plays, all on the ground.

Forbes scored this one but Tom Van Seyoc, who replaced Hays at fullback for this drive, carried five times and gained 24 yards during the 56-yard march. Lindenfeld added 19 in three carries up the middle against Central's 4-4 defense. Knuth kicked the extra point.

The combination of a Dick Cox punt and the defensive work of Ken Carr, a defensive tackle, gave the Bears two points early in the fourth period.

Cox' punt was touched by a

Galien Breaks Winless String

GALIEN — Galien ended its 12-game winless streak Friday with an 18-0 Red Arrow victory over winless New Buffalo.

"We finally put a good ball game together," said Galien coach Bob Miller. "The line finally realized it could block."

The Gaels hadn't won since a 13-0 decision over Watervliet in their 1965 opener. But the Red Arrow victory over Watervliet in their 1965 opener. But the streak did include 12-12 and 0-0 ties with Bridgman.

Halfback Larry Nekvasil got Galien's first touchdown Friday in the second quarter on a two-yard plunge. The score was set up when Don Hinman blocked a New Buffalo punt.

The Gaels then made it 12-0 at halftime when Jim Birdy-shaw threw 20 yards to Al Smith. Galien had taken the ball after a punt on its own 40 with a minute and a half left.

Nekvasil ended Galien's scoring in the fourth quarter with his second TD. This one was good for 65 yards on an off-tackle play.

The Gaels also threatened three other times with drives which were halted by penalties within the Bisons' three yard line.

Nekvasil led the New Buffalo rushers with 119 yards in 19 carries. Birdyshaw added 41 yards and Ted Payne 30. Fullback Barry Marcucci paced the Bisons' runners.

Outstanding linemen picked by Miller were Hinman, Smith, Jim Canfield, Ron Pearson and Tim Holt. Gaels credited with intercepted passes were Smith, Payne and Jim Westover.

Galien is now 1-4-1 while New Buffalo stands at 0-7.

The score by quarter:

Portage player at the four and on the first play, quarterback Bob Curtis failed to gain. The next play found Carr breaking through the line and nailing Curtis in the end zone for the safety.

With just over three minutes left in the game, the Mustangs gambled on a pass attempt on fourth down at their own 30. The pass was never thrown as Louie Awodey broke through and tackled Curtis at the 25.

The Bears, with Mike Ott at quarterback, moved in for a touchdown with 1:33 left in the game when Forbes scored on a crossback good for five yards and a foot.

It was the third time the Bears had scored the touchdown but the only time that counted. Hayes, who missed by a foot of going over on the previous play, went in for an apparent score but the Bears were ruled in motion and the ball brought out to the five plus a foot.

A pass from Ott to John Yetzke in the end zone looked good but Yetzke was ruled out of the end zone when he caught it. There was no doubt about Forbes' run after which Knuth again kicked the extra point.

The game ended with Portage on St. Joseph's seven-yard line as the Mustangs went into a shot-gun offense that moved them from their own 26 on four straight completed passes from Mike Secondi to end Pete Zontendyk.

Forbes, Cox and Hays sparked the St. Joseph offense. Forbes gained 83 yards, 64 of which came in the first half, on 15 carries. Hays added 57 in 13 carries and Cox picked up 50 yards in nine tries.

The Bears, with their ground game working well, threw only seven passes. Lindenfeld completed two of five for 22 yards and Ott tossed twice, completing one for 17 yards. For the first time this season, St. Joseph didn't have a pass intercepted.

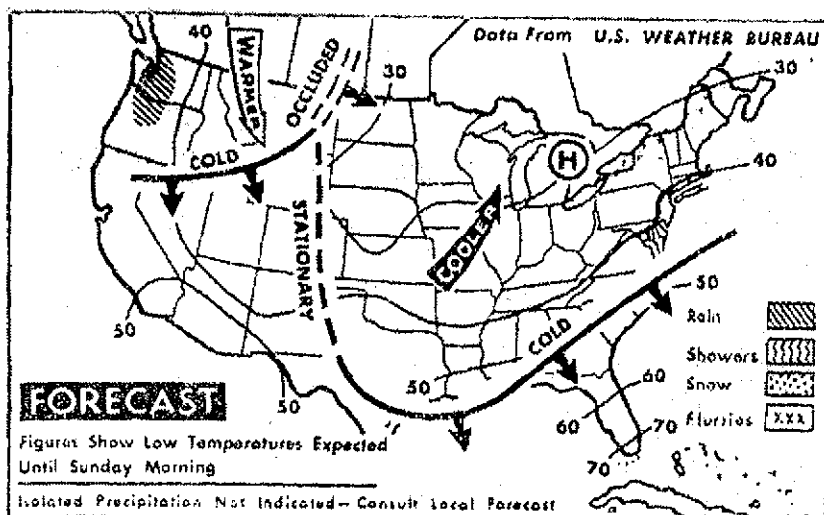

St. Joseph will take a 3-4 record into next Friday's battle at Dickinson Stadium against South Haven while Central, now 1-6, hosts Battle Creek Lakeview.

Sunday Is Final Day On Market

Sunday is the last official trading day of the 1966 season on the Benton Harbor market, according to an announcement by Market Master Donald Cluser.

It presumably is also the last official trading day for all time at the present market site, which is slated to be demolished under an urban renewal plan and reconstructed near the Twin Cities airport east of Benton Harbor.

Though the market officially will be closed after Sunday, trading will continue on an informal "no entry fees" basis so long as farmers have crops to sell.

The market is closed today for the regular weekend "holiday," but on Friday volume fell off to less than 3,000 packages.

In apples, Jonathans and Golden Delicious hiding last season's prices were:

APPLES: 10-lbs., U.S. 1, 24¢; inch-up, Jonathan, $2.50; open but, unclassified, Jonathan $1.25; $1.60, Delicious few $1.75, Golden Delicious few $1.50, Red Rome few $1.65, Red Stayman $1.50-$1.75, Northern Spy drops $2.17; season total $29,823.

There were 6 day buyers, 59 grower loads, and 2,871 packages on the market Friday.

Sentenced In B.H. Assault

Second Term Given Benton Man

George Clark, 47, will be serving two prison terms soon. Clark was given a three to four-year sentence Friday for assault with a dangerous weapon. This was piled on top of a 2½ to five-year term given him Aug. 22 for carrying a concealed weapon.

Clark, 1136 Pine street, Benton township, was sentenced Friday in connection with an assault Aug. 6 on Leona Price, 726 Highland avenue, Benton Harbor. Sentence was pronounced by Berrien Circuit Judge Karl F. Zick. The sentences will run concurrently.

Also sentenced to prison Friday was William J. Hall, 38, who gave home addresses of New Buffalo and Michigan City. Hall was given a two to ten-year prison term for breaking and entering, in connection with the May 7 burglary of the New Troy American Legion hall. Judge Zick recommended that Hall be given special technical training or a chance to complete his schooling while in prison.

JAIL TERMS
Given jail terms were Wayne E. Kane, 22, of 567½ Woodruff; Niles; Richard R. Brewer, 20, of 2710 Adams; Niles; and John L. Atkins, 36, of 301½ Margaret street, Benton Harbor.

Kane, charged with aggravated assault, was given a four-month term, and ordered to pay $200 fine, $200 court costs and $20 state tax for the law enforcement officers training fund. Brewer was given four-month sentences for violation of the financial responsibility act and breaking of probation, and ordered to pay $300 fine and costs. Atkins was given 45 days in jail for violation of probation. Only one guilty plea was entered during arraignments before Judge Zick Friday. Donald R. Shull, 20, route 3, Benton Harbor, pleaded guilty to a charge of larceny from a person. However, he stood mute to a companion charge of assault with a dangerous weapon. Shull was remanded to custody of sheriff's deputies pending sentencing.

RELEASED ON BOND
Kenneth Snow, 23, Eau Claire, pleaded innocent to a charge of indecent exposure. Robert Pugh, 29, of 270 Colfax avenue, Benton Harbor, stood mute to a charge of larceny in a building. They were released on bonds pending trials.

Joseph J. Lewis, 24, Chicago, stood mute to two charges of uttering and publishing fraudulent checks. Richard E. Olney, 39, of 1143 Union street, Benton Harbor, stood mute to a charge of writing a no-account check. Both were remanded to custody of deputies pending trials.

Convicted in Felonious Driving Case
Melvin W. Coleman, 35, of 693 Wells avenue, Benton Heights, was convicted Friday on a charge of felonious driving. The charge stemmed from a two-car crash May 2 on Territorial road, Benton township.

A seven-woman five-man jury heard testimony most of Thursday and then returned Friday to deliberate about an hour before bringing in the guilty verdict. The case was heard before Berrien Circuit Judge Karl F. Zick.

Coleman's car was involved in a nearly head-on crash that brought injuries to three persons, including Harold L. Clay, 31, of 551 Heck court, Benton Harbor, driver of the other car. Coleman was released on bond, pending sentencing.
